Telcos get cash flow boost as Cabinet clears relief package

The government said guidelines regarding this would be finalised by the finance ministry. Among the long-term measures, the one which would be most welcomed by the industry, would be the redefinition of AGR in a manner which clearly stipulates what revenues will go towards its calculation. The government said companies in future will need to pay the licence fee and SUC only on telecom revenues and not on non-telecom revenues like interest, dividends, capital gains, etc. However, since this will also be from a prospective date, it will not bring any immediate relief to the operators. The licence fee which currently stands at 8% of the AGR has not been changed, but since non-telecom revenues will be taken out, the amount companies pay as licence fee would slightly come down.

Among the other measures is rationalisation of bank guarantees, where in future there would be no requirements for multiple BGs in different licenced service areas and one BG will be enough. For future auctions, no BGs would be required.

Interest rates have been rationalised and penalties removed from October 1 for delayed payments of licence fee and SUC. These would attract interest rate of SBI's MCLR plus 2% instead of MCLR plus 4% and interest would be compounded annually instead of monthly. Further, penalty and interest on penalty have been removed.

In future auctions, the tenure of spectrum has been increased from 20 to 30 years and after 10 years of acquiring spectrum, companies would have the option of surrendering it. However, since these measures would not bring any immediate relief to the operators. Though the government has said SUC would be scrapped on spectrum in future auctions, it did not clarify how the segregation of revenues accruing from different bands would be done. In the past, DoT has failed to do such segregation because of which SUC reforms got stuck.

Billions blown as Macau casino investors fold amid gambling review

At a news briefing on Tuesday, Lei detailed nine areas for the consultation, such as the number of licenses, better regulation and employee welfare, as well as having government representatives to supervise daily casino operations.

The government also plans to increase voting shares in gaming concessionaires for permanent residents of Macau, as well as more rules on transfer and distribution of profits to shareholders.

Discussions over the future of Macau's casino licences come amid rocky US-China relations, leaving some investors fearing an edge for domestic players over US-based casino operators.

The government has not singled out any US players, but companies have moved to beef up the presence of Chinese or local executives as they position themselves more as Macau operators than foreign one.

Before licence expiry, operators have tried to strengthen corporate responsibility and diversify into non-gaming offerings to placate Beijing, which fears over-reliance on gambling. Macau has boosted scrutiny of casinos in recent years, clamping down on illicit capital flows from mainland China and targeting underground lending and illegal cash transfers.

Beijing has also stepped up a war on cross-border flows of funds for gambling, hitting the funding of Macau's junket operators and their VIP customers. In June, Macau more than doubled the number of gaming inspectors and restructured departments to boost supervision. George Choi, a Citigroup analyst in Hong Kong, said while the public consultation document gave few details, the suggested changes benefit long-term sustainable growth, with "positive implications on the six casino operators".

अगस्त में खाद्य तेलों का आयात 22 प्रतिशत घटकर 10.16 लाख टन

नयी दिल्ली, 15 सितंबर (भाषा) भारत का खाद्य तेल आयात अगस्त में 22 प्रतिशत घटकर 10,16,370 टन रह गया। आयात घटने का मुख्य कारण इस साल जून-जुलाई में हुए अधिक स्टॉक के बचे अधिशेष स्टॉक के साथ-साथ खाद्यतेलों की खुदरा कीमतों में उछाल के कारण उपभोक्ता मांग का कम होना था। सॉल्वेंट एक्सट्रैक्टर्स एसोसिएशन ऑफ इंडिया (एसईए) ने एक बयान में कहा कि अखाद्य तेल का आयात भी अगस्त में घटकर 37,440 टन रह गया, जो पिछले साल इसी महीने में 62,052 टन का हुआ था। अगस्त, 2021 के दौरान वनस्पति तेलों (खाद्य और अखाद्य तेलों) का आयात 10,53,810 टन रहा, जो पिछले साल इसी महीने में 13,70,457 टन था, जो 23 प्रतिशत की गिरावट को दर्शाता है। संपर्क करने पर, एसईए के कार्यकारी निदेशक बी वी मेहता ने कहा, “जून और जुलाई में अधिक आयात के कारण अगस्त में आयात में गिरावट आई है। अतिरिक्त स्टॉक की खपत हो गई है। इसके अलावा खाद्य तेलों की ऊंची कीमतों के कारण मांग में कमी आई है।” अक्टूबर को समाप्त होने वाले तेल विपणन वर्ष 2020-21 के पहले 10 महीनों के दौरान खाद्य तेल का आयात पिछले वर्ष की इसी अवधि में 109,06,259 टन से गिरकर 103,86,517 टन रह गया। अखाद्य तेल का आयात 2,89,631 टन से बढ़कर 3,21,929 टन हो गया। नवंबर, 2020 से अगस्त, 2021 के दौरान वनस्पति तेलों (खाद्य और अखाद्य तेल दोनों शामिल) का कुल आयात 1,07,08,446 टन रहा, जो पिछले वर्ष की इसी अवधि में 1,11,95,890 टन के कुल आयात से चार प्रतिशत कम है।
